

"See For Yourself..."

Firewall and Encryption Servers

Why do I need a firewall traversal and encryption server?

Flexibility and security. A firewall traversal provides your end-users the ability to have videoconferences over IP from your corporate network to internet based videoconference users while provided the necessary security for your network. Encryption offers added security.

10%
OFF

With this page.

ALG Proxy Server—2

List: $10,000

Part #: ALG2002

This application level gateway (ALG) is a proxy server that specializes in secure firewall/NAT traversal of H.323 traffic (both signaling streams and media streams). Inc. 2 concurrent w/ 1 Yr software.

ALG Proxy Server—100

List: $113,000

Part #: ALG20100

This ALG Server support 100 concurrent calls with 1 Year Software Subscription

Also available with 5, 10, 25 or 50 concurrent calls.

Advanced Encryption Server

List: $8,000

Encryption Server with 10 concurrent logins with 1 year software subscription

Part #: AES00010

Advanced Encryption Server

List: $50,000

Encryption Server with 350+ concurrent logins with 1 year software subscription.

Part #: AES00350

VCON SecureConnect family of firewall and encryption products allows any size organization to have secure, encrypted communications.

Key Features

- Supports any standard H.323 device
- Media streams pass directly between conference participants
- Single or dual server configurations available
- Supports all firewalls
- Includes high-availability features
- Supports VCON Interactive Multicast

